

REPUBLIC OF KENYA

MINISTRY OF DEVOLUTION & PLANNING

DIRECTORATE OF PUBLIC SERVICE MANAGEMENT

Certificate of Participation

This certificate of participation has been awarded to
Viola Chepngeno

Of School of Government-Embu

For attending a training / capacity building workshop on promoting integrity and strategies for preventing corruption held at Kenya School of Government Embu on 3rd – 7th June, 2013. Facilitators / trainers for the course were drawn from the Ethics and Integrity Institute.

TOPICS COVERED:

- Understanding Ethics and related topics. Why is ethics and integrity important?
- Constitutional foundations and legislation on ethics and integrity. Chapter 2, 6 and 13 of Kenya Constitution, 2010.
- The Leadership and Integrity Act.
- The Public Officers Code of Conduct.
- Myths about Corruption.
- Effects of Corruption.
- Challenges to fighting corruption.
- Corruption cases in Kenya.
- Structures for fighting corruption.
- Roles of the Corruption Prevention Committee and the Integrity Officer.
- Tools and instruments for fighting corruption.
- Risk assessment and Integrity promotion plans.
- The Anti-corruption Policy.
- Approaches to identifying corruption risks.
- Risk areas in Human resource and Finance, Procurement, ICT and Administration.
- Corruption risk matrices.
- Corruption detection tools.
- Steps on corruption investigation and resolution.

Rachel J. Okumu (Mrs), OGW
Course Co-ordinator

Date: 7/6/2013

Ms. Njoki Kahiga, OGW
Ag. Permanent Secretary

Date: 13/06/13