Dear Sir,

Re: Application for Promotion to Principle Lecturer KSG 5

Consequent to the Director General's Memo Ref: KSG/KQS/ADM/3 (34) of March 26th, 2025. I Musundi Laban Cornelius, Personal Number 2012020298, being a member of the Schools' Faculty and currently working as a Senior Lecturer KSG 6 stationed at the Embu Campus of the School, hereby apply for promotion among the available slots for Principle Lecturer KSG 5 advertised by the School. It is my considered opinion that I meet the requirements set out in the Schools' scheme of service for the position.

It is my considered opinion, that through my career in the school, I have had and made use of the opportunities to actualize a number of the core mandate of the school, even as I developed my capacity on matters Training, Research and Consultancy as demonstrated by the output in my profile and Curriculum vitae. However, the Advisory part of the mandate is not as prominent.

This promotion to Principle Lecturer will therefore serve as an avenue to facilitate my output on this part of the Schools mandate both as an individual and in collaboration with my colleagues at both Campus, School level and even the wider public service; in accountability terms such as mentoring, coaching and advising as a responsible Officer of the School, and even wider through building, developing and strengthening professional networks and think tanks if I am granted an opportunity and a credible platform such as the Schools' standing in Kenya and the region.

Yours faithfully,

Musundi C. Laban
