

CAROLINE GICUKU NYAGA

P.O. Box 4845-00506, Nairobi, Kenya

Email: carolekithinji@gmail.com

Phone: +254-729 529 091, +254-734 858 545

EDUCATIONMasters of Science in Library and Information Studies

Moi University, August 2019

Bachelor of Science in Information Science

Moi University, December 2008 – 2nd Class Upper

Diploma in Information Studies

Technical University of Kenya (Formerly Kenya Polytechnic), December 2001 - Credit

Kenya Certificate of Secondary Education

Kangaru Girls High School, December 1992 – C-(Minus)

PUBLICATIONS AND RESEARCH

- An Audit of Change Management Process in Library System Migration at Africa Nazarene University Library. 'International Journal of Scientific Research and Innovative Technology ISSN: 2313-3759 Vol. 4 No. 10; October 2017'
 - Evaluation of SIRS Mandarin M3 Library Information System: a case study of Africa Nazarene University Grace Roles library.(Undergraduate project)
-

AWARDS AND HONORS

Awarded the Jay Jordan IFLA/OCLC fellowship in 2013.

LANGUAGES

English, Kiswahili, Embu, Kikuyu

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Professional Summary

Experienced Senior Librarian with over 10 years of expertise in acquisition, cataloging, and technical library services within academic settings. Proficient in bibliographic maintenance standards including MARC, AACR2, and LC Classification. Skilled in implementing Integrated Library Systems like Koha to enhance cataloging efficiency and user access. Demonstrated success in leading teams, optimizing library processes, developing technical service policies, and managing collections to meet evolving user needs.

Work Experience

Senior Librarian, Kenya School of Government (Sept 2019 – Present)

- Develop and updates the guidelines established in the collection development policy
- Assess all library information resources orders to ensure compliance with Collection Development Policy
- Analyse library collection for new acquisitions and weeding purposes
- Budget management by planning, monitoring, and controlling financial resources.
- Coordinate the development of staff individual work plans.
- Supervise and appraise library staff.
- Implement library operations and user needs assessment.
- Develop and conduct information literacy programs.

- Research identify, analyse, evaluate and recommended electronic resources, and software for the library
- Manage knowledge and library housekeeping activities.
- Prepare campus library reports and facilitate access to information resources.

Librarian, Kenya Education Management Institute (Sept 2011 – Aug 2019)

- Providing leadership in developing access to electronic information resources and multimedia products, and working with the training department to boost materials and informational services that support the teaching/learning functions of the institution.
- Coordinates the introduction of technological advances in information access into the Learning Resources centre.
- Teach library courses, give lectures on library use and orientation tours and provide library related workshops.
- Recommend books, periodicals, audiovisual software, computer software, and other library materials for purchase.
- Prepare bibliographies and advise library patrons of appropriate materials.
- Supervise the organization and management of various library service areas.
- Participate in the evaluation of library service areas and functions and make recommendations for appropriate policies.
- Keep up with new developments and knowledge in appropriate fields of competency, including the Internet, Web page development, and online and database searching and management.
- Maintain control of equipment, materials, and supplies as assigned.

AFRICA NAZARENE UNIVERSITY (Sept 2006 – Sept 2011)

Reference Librarian (Mar 2008 – Sept 2011)

- Assist patrons in locating information from resources available within and outside the library.
- Organize library orientation programs for new patrons, improving user engagement and library service awareness.
- Market library services through outreach to departments, classes, and individuals, and develop promotional materials.
- Develop reference services and e-learning support to enhance academic support and information accessibility.
- Conduct training sessions for patrons and staff on utilizing electronic resources, library equipment, and software.
- Provide input on the selection of new resources (print and electronic) based on analysis, needs, and suitability.
- Prepare monthly statistics and conduct performance appraisals for the library staff.

Library Advisor for the School-based Programme (Aug 2010 – Sept 2011)

- Orient school-based students, providing guidance on using library resources.
- Provide computer and catalog assistance, reference services, and reader advisory to students and faculty.
- Offer advisory services to the education department on library-related matters.
- Prepare introduction letters for school-based students for access to other libraries.
- Compile monthly statistics and selected materials for school-based information needs.
- Develop library collections for various centers, ensuring resource availability for diverse educational programs.

Distance Learning Librarian (Aug 2010 – Sept 2011)

- Ensure equitable access to essential library services for distance education students and faculty, including reference assistance, bibliographic instruction, interlibrary loan, and electronic resources.
- Act as the primary library contact for distance education students and faculty, providing technical support via phone, email, and reference service requests.
- Design course-specific online access modules and advised on copyright matters.
- Technical Department (Apr 2007 – Feb 2008)
- Catalog and classify information resources using the Sirs Mandarin cataloging and classification modules.
- Maintain the Online Public Access Catalogue (OPAC) and library database.

Circulation Librarian (Sept 2006 – Jan 2007)

- Manage the circulation desk, including checking materials in and out.
- Collaborate with departmental heads for effective student registration.
- Collect fines, managed overdue materials, and provide computer and catalog assistance.
- Respond to reference questions and offer reader advisory services.

Acquisition Librarian (Jan 2007 – Apr 2007)

- Select and order both print and non-print information materials for the library.
- Review publishers' catalogs and announcements to compile purchase lists.
- Communicate with vendors and consult with faculty and Library patrons on acquisition needs.
- Conduct the acquisition and selection of new information resources (both print and electronic) based on analysis and suitability.

Achievements

- Prepared a library orientation video for new users, increasing the accessibility and visibility of library services.
 - Contributed to the university's online abstract journal as a task force member.
 - Developed library collections for school-based centers, enhancing resource availability.
 - Facilitated a distance learning program workshop to support off-campus learning.
-

Skills

- Technical Skills:

Integrated Library Systems (Koha), MARC, AACR2, LCSH, LC Classification, OPAC, library cataloging and classification.

- Library Services:

Acquisition, cataloging, collection development, bibliographic control, information literacy, user services.

- Soft Skills:

Team leadership, project management, policy development, problem-solving, budget management.

REFERENCES

Dr. Maurice Odondo,

Director, Kenya Education Management Institute,

Email: odondomaurice@gmail.com

Cell phone: +254722241372

Winnie Karimi Gatimu

University Librarian

Riara University

P.O Box 49940 – 00100, Nairobi,

Nairobi - Kenya

Cell phone: 0733644044, 0718928595