I am writing to express my interest in the above-mentioned position.

I hold a bachelor's degree in Hospitality Management and two short course certificates (pastry & Bakery and international cookery). I am seeking a new and challenging opportunity to add value in our department as well as the entire institution.

Having worked in the position of Pastry cook for five years, carrying out duties and responsibilities that pertain to the post, I have gained the much-needed skills and experience for the advertised job. I hereby apply for this position to continue contributing and maintaining the expected service standards to the quest and participate in promoting excellence in the public service development.

Looking forward to discussing the role in more detail.
