The Director General,
Kenya School of Government,
Nairobi.
Dear Sir,

REF: Application for the position of Chief Principal Lecturer II

I am writing to express my interest in the position of Chief Principal Lecturer II, as advertised. With extensive experience in training, leadership, organizational strategy, and management of consultancy services, I am confident in my ability to work in the role of Chief Principal Lecturer II towards achieving the school's core mandate and strategic goals.

Over the course of my career, I have demonstrated strong expertise in strategic planning, operational efficiency, and governance. As a seasoned consultant, and trainer, I have worked with diverse organizations to design and implement innovative solutions that enhance human capital development and organizational performance. My background includes years of experience in management consulting, coupled with a proven ability to build stakeholder trust and drive organizational excellence.

Key highlights of my experience include:

- Leading multidisciplinary teams in implementing high impact projects that improved organizational effectiveness.
- Providing thought leadership and training in HR management practices, including policy formulation and compliance.
- Managing budgets and resources effectively to achieve optimal results.

I am particularly drawn to the role of Chief Principal Lecturer II because of my commitment to the growth and professionalization of the Kenya School of Government. I am deeply passionate about training, research and consultancy that meet global standards of excellence, and I believe this role aligns perfectly with my skills and vision.

I am confident that my leadership abilities, professional acumen, and deep understanding of the core business of KSG will allow me to provide exceptional service and contribute meaningfully to the school's success. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss my candidacy further.

Yours sincerely,

Hussein Roba Boru, Ph.D., Chrp
