PROFILE

I am an experienced Human Resource Development Practitioner, Educationist, and eLearning Specialist with a passion for integrating technology into teaching and learning. With over 17 years of experience, I have successfully implemented capacity-building programs for adult learners across diverse settings, including 13 years in the public sector at the Kenya School of Government (KSG) and 4 years in humanitarian refugee operations in Kakuma and Dadaab refugee camps.

My expertise lies in:

- eLearning Development & Knowledge Management – Designing, developing, and delivering digital learning solutions.
- Instructional & Multimedia Design – Creating engaging, multi-platform eLearning content.
- Training & Curriculum Development – Leading needs assessments, program design, and training facilitation.
- Public Sector & Humanitarian Operations – Managing training programs for government institutions and refugee communities.

I have a proven ability to work in multi-cultural, multi-stakeholder environments, including collaborations with government agencies, donors, and international organizations.
