Kenya Methodist University (KEMU)/ Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture And Technology (JKUAT)	Part-time lecturer	Kenya	01 Sep 2012	15 Sep 2013	MOBASA-Kenya Methodist University (KEMU)/ Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture And Technology (JKUAT)	Preparation of Course Content I successfully developed comprehensive and structured course materials for Introduction to Macroeconomics, Intermediate Macroeconomics, and Risk Management & Insurance, ensuring they aligned with academic standards. The course content was designed to be engaging and practical, incorporating well-structured lesson plans, lecture notes, case studies, and real-world examples to enhance student comprehension. Additionally, I integrated current economic trends, policy implications, and relevant case studies to provide students with a more applicable and insightful learning experience. Examination Setting In my role, I developed clear, objective, and competency-based examinations to effectively assess students' knowledge, critical thinking skills, and application of key concepts. To ensure diverse and comprehensive evaluation, I designed assessments that included multiple-choice questions, essay-based evaluations, and problem-solving case studies. Furthermore, I ensured that all examinations adhered to institutional policies and accreditation standards, promoting fairness, academic integrity, and consistency in evaluation. Facilitation of Courses I successfully delivered lectures and facilitated discussions for Introduction to Macroeconomics, Intermediate Macroeconomics, and Risk Management & Insurance using interactive teaching methodologies, such as case studies, simulations, and group discussions. My teaching approach encouraged critical thinking and problem-solving, allowing students to apply theoretical knowledge to real-world problems. Additionally, I provided individualized mentorship and academic support, ensuring students gained a deep understanding of complex macroeconomic principles and risk management strategies. Examination Marking and Submission I conducted timely and accurate grading of examinations, ensuring that students received fair and objective assessments of their performance. My feedback process included providing detailed insights and recommendations, allowing students to identify areas for improvement. I also ensured the prompt compilation, verification, and submission of final grades within the required institutional timelines, facilitating a smooth academic progression for students. Through the above mentioned efforts, I have made significant contributions to academic excellence and student success by maintaining high-quality content delivery, employing effective assessment methods. My work has strengthened students' analytical, decision-making, and problem-solving skills, particularly in macroeconomics and risk management, ensuring they are well-prepared for real-world applications. Additionally, my commitment to continuous improvement in curriculum development, assessment techniques, and teaching methodologies has enhanced the overall effectiveness of the courses and enriched the learning experience for students.	preparing course content, exam setting, facilitation of the course, exam marking and submission: Introduction to Macroeconomics intermediate macroeconomics and Risk Management and Insurance
