REF: APPLICATION FOR THE POSITION OF ASSISTANT DIRECTOR SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT SERVICES -ADSCMS/22/2024-2025

Enclosed is a resume to express my interest and capacity to offer my services as an Assistant Director Supply Chain Management Services at Kenya School of Government. As a dedicated and highly adaptable Supply Chain Professional with more than 15 years of experience in providing comprehensive administrative and operational services in Supply Chain Management, I am confident that I would be a valuable asset to your team.

I am a member of the Kenya Institute of Supplies Management as well as member certified at the highest level by the Chartered Institute of Procurement and Supply; CIPS Level 6-Professional Diploma. With a background in coordinating and supervising supply chain operations, logistics and emergency responses for organizations my core strengths include but are not limited to; contract management, project management, procurement processing, inventory management and supplier management. My vast experience will enable efficient, cost-effective, and reliable supply and delivery of products and services, whilst also impacting the top line - promoting growth, innovation, and cost reduction.

Please consider the following highlights of my qualifications:

- ✓ Successfully steered the tendering process for the financial year 2023-2026 and 2021-2024 bringing on board new suppliers at competitive prices which has contributed to overall cost reduction.
- ✓ Optimized the turnaround time in tender processing, preparation and approval of professional opinions.

- ✓ Overall team management, leading, motivating and directing the department to ensure high levels of self-discipline, motivation and team work, the results of which are evidenced in successful audits both internally and externally.

With my commitment to delivering the highest level of administrative and operational support, I am well prepared to extend my record of exceptional service to your team. I welcome the opportunity to discuss this position and my qualifications with you further. Thank you in advance.

Yours sincerely,

Njagi Maureen Muthoni.
