LOWER KABETE, NAIROBI

Dear Sir,

Re: Application for a Position of Senior Principal Lecturer Job Ref. No. SPL/03/2024-25

I hereby wish to express my interest for appointment in the position of a Senior Principal Lecturer in the Kenya School of Government as internally advertised vide your circular Ref. No. KSG/KQS/ADM/3 (34) dated March 26, 2025 and I have enclosed my curriculum vitae for your review and consideration.

I am currently pursuing Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) degree in Business Administration and Management, which when successfully completed will build on my other qualifications as a holder of a Masters of Business Administration (Finance) from the University of Nairobi and Bachelors of Commerce (Accounting) from Kenyatta University. I am also a Certified Public Accountants of Kenya and a member of Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Kenya (ICPAK) in good standing.

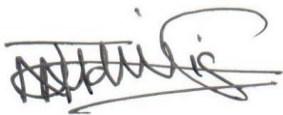

Further, I have attended various capacity development programs that have continuously enhanced my knowledge, skills and competences. Some of these programs include: Training of Trainers Course, Learning Strategy Facilitators Workshop Program, Grant Proposal Writing Seminar, Senior Management Course (SMC), and Strategic Leadership Development Programme (SLDP) all at the Kenya School of Government; Training of Trainers Workshop organized by the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Kenya (ICPAK); a competence based program on Investment Appraisal and Risk Analysis offered by the Queens University and conducted by Cambridge Resources International, Inc., USA in Nairobi which was organized by the Kenya School of Government in partnership with USAID; Public Expenditure Management (PEM) organized by the Institute of Government Accounts and Finance (INGAF), New Delhi, India; among other capacity development programs as listed in my resume.

I am currently a Principal Lecturer in the School effective April 1, 2025 having been re-designated from the position of an Assistant Director, Finance and Accounts. This was after my request for re-designation dated March 27, 2018 that was followed by a suitability interview conducted on September 3, 2019. Having been deployed in administrative positions in the School since 2010, I have gained over fourteen (14) years tremendous knowledge, skills, competences and hands-on experiences in public finance management and administration, leadership and governance, development of public service manual and policy documents, enterprise risk management among other experiences in the management of governments and public entities. Further, during this period, I have also made meaningful contribution in training, research, consultancy and advisory services in the School as a part-time faculty member where I have been engaged in various roles and responsibilities in the Learning and Development function in the School such as development of programs curricula and training materials; development of consultancy proposals; undertaking research and consultancy assignments; and facilitating in training programs as demonstrated in my resume. Engagement of administrative staff in Learning and Development Function in the School was a requirement by the School as provided for vide the Director General's memo Ref. No. KSG/NRB/TRN Vol. V/29 dated December 9, 2020 whereby administrative managers were required to participate in Consultancy, Training and Research Activities.

In view of the above, I am interested in this position in the School and I am confident that I have the relevant experience, competences and skills to perform the duties and responsibilities attached to this position, making positive contributions to continued success of the School in realizing its goals and objectives. As a team member of the School faculty, I can provide but not limited to: Efficiency, reliability and accuracy in operations; integrity, honest and ability to look at challenges as opportunities; strong leadership talents, 'team player' attitude and spirit, and the natural ability to establish consensus among cross-functional line; and proven multi-tasking capabilities with strong ability to plan, prioritize and manage complex projects/programs under aggressive timelines.

I would be glad, if you could offer me an opportunity to interview with you and discuss any of my overall abilities regarding this position. I have attached copies of my certificates and other relevant documents for your reference. I look forward to your positive consideration.
