Dear Sir,

RE: Application for the Position of Principal Lecturer Associate: KSG 5 PL/04/2024-25

I write in response to the Career Advancement Circular- KSG/HQS/ADM/3(34) - dated 2th March 2025. With a PhD in Political Studies and International Relations, and over 15 years of experience in teaching and managing of research programs , I believe I can add value to KSG'S capacity enhancement and policy research engagements.

I have- for the last five years- been working as a Senior Lecturer at the Kenya School of Government - Security Management Institute (KSG-SMI). My duties have involved assisting the SMI Director in providing strategic direction to the Institute and leading on a number of functional areas. These have included managing projects through the life-circles, designing and conducting research as well as Training Needs Assessments (TNAs), developing of training curricular and manuals, coordinating and facilitating trainings, and writing of funding proposals, among others.

Among my accomplishments since joining the SMI in October 2019 include;

- a) Developing of Training Curricular and Training Manuals on Preventing and Countering Violent Extremism (PCVE) and on Kenya Coordinated Border Management (KCBM),
- b) Generating SMI programmatic areas
- c) Writing of four successful funding proposals
- d) Managing (planning, organizing, and coordinating) three projects through their life circles
- e) Facilitating many trainings in the areas of peace, security, international relations and public service ethics and integrity.
- f) Undertaking several primary and secondary research assignments and producing high quality research outputs (research papers, policy briefs and case studies, among others).
- g) Leading on the development of Migration in Kenya: A Country Profile 2024 for the International Organization for Migration (IOM)

I have previously worked capacities that are relevant to the above position as detailed on my Curriculum Vitae. For instance from 2014-2018 I taught at the Institute for Diplomacy and International Studies (IDIS) of the University of Nairobi on several subject areas and supervised student projects and Theses at all levels (Diploma, Masters and Doctorate. I have –too- written considerably on diverse thematic areas and extensively participated in sharing of knowledge products as detailed on my curriculum vitae

I believe I can comfortably fill the above position and request for an interview to ascertain my abilities.

I look forward to hearing from you.
With Kind Regards
