Dear Sir,

RE: PRINCIPAL LECTURER- (PL/04/2024-25):

I hereby offer myself for the position of Principal Lecturer in the School. I have served as a Senior Lecturer for over six years having been appointed to the position in 2018. I hold an M.A. (Project Planning & Management) and a B.A. (Economics and Sociology) from the University of Nairobi where among other courses I was examined and qualified are Fundamentals of Management which opened my leadership horizons which will come in handy as I will be coordinating the planning and implementation of training programs, supporting programs to design and implement high quality monitoring, evaluation and reporting systems that allow staff and other stakeholders to monitor program activities, outputs, evaluate results, effects and impact on beneficiaries.

Some of the responsibilities entrusted in me in other recent jobs included co – ordination of research projects to ensure that they ran within the time frame, liaising with other departments in the management of the research projects, preparing action plans (annual work plans and budget) and strategic plans through participatory approaches and networking and collaboration with development partners like the World Bank, US Aid and European Union operating with MOYAS, KIPPRA, PMSL, AIHD and IMLU. If considered for this promotion, I will discharge the duties assigned to me expeditiously and diligently without fear or favour.
