The Director General
Kenya School of Government
P.O. Box 23030 - 00604
Nairobi, Kenya

Dear Sir

RE: APPLICATION FOR THE POSITION OF ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, FINANCE AND ACCOUNTS REF NO: (ADFA/14/2024-25)

I am writing to express my interest in the Assistant Director, Finance and Accounts position at the Kenya School of Government, as advertised through the website of the Kenya school of government (KSG) <https://careeradvancement.ksg.ac.ke/>. With a strong background in financial management, accounting, and public sector financial oversight, I am confident in my ability to contribute effectively to the financial and accounting functions of the esteemed institution.

I hold Master Degree of Business Administration in finance from the University of Nairobi and a Bachelor degree in Business Administration (Major in Accounting option) from Kampala International University (KIU), I am also a certified Public Accountant Registered with Institute of Certified Public accounts of Kenya (ICPAK), and I have over (14 years) of experience in financial management, including budgeting, forecasting, financial reporting, and compliance.

My current role as Head of finance Nairobi Campus/Principal Accountant at Kenya School of Government) involves overseeing the full financial cycle, from planning and forecasting to detailed analysis and reporting, developing implementing and reviewing financial policies, strategies, regulations, guidelines and procedures for the school, spearheading annual budget. I have also been responsible for managing teams, implementing process improvements, and ensuring regulatory and statutory compliance, all of which align closely with the requirements for the Assistant Director Finance and Accounts.

In my current role as Principal Accountant/Head of finance and Account at Kenya School of Government-Nairobi Campus, I have successfully led financial planning, reporting, and analysis for key departments, ensuring adherence to budgetary guidelines and financial regulations. I have also played a key role in streamlining financial processes, improving internal controls, and enhancing the efficiency of financial operations. My ability to interpret complex financial data and communicate it clearly to the management has earned me recognition for contributing to the institution's financial stability and growth.

Some of the key skills and experiences that I believe make me a strong candidate for this role include:

- Expertise in financial management, including budgeting, forecasting, and financial reporting.
- Strong knowledge of public sector financial regulations and compliance.
- Proficiency in financial software and systems, including -Sage Pastel, Quick books & ERP (Electronic Resource Planning).
- Proven ability to manage teams, implement financial strategies, and ensure timely and accurate reporting.
- Effective communicator with a collaborative approach to working with stakeholders at all levels.
- Ensuring Financial Prudence and discipline in financial accounting, planning, treasury management and budgetary controls in compliance with Public Financial Management Act (PFM Act) 2012 and its regulation of 2015.
- Coordinating Investment Planning for the school to increase the revenue.
- Initiating Proposals seeking funds for additional expenditure.

I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to bring my expertise in the role of assistant Director Finance and accounts to support the institution's financial objectives. I am confident that my skills and experience will allow me to make meaningful contributions to the continued success of the School.

I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how my background, skills, and qualifications align with the needs of the Kenya School of Government. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of contributing to the school at that level.

Yours Sincerely,
