The Director General,
Kenya School of Government,
P.O. Box 23030-00604,
Nairobi, Kenya.

Dear Sir,

Ref: Application for the position of the Director, Library and Information Services Ref. No. DDLIB & D/11/2024-25

Following an advertisement of the above position in Kenya School of Government (KSG) media, I hereby express my keen interest in working for the institution in that capacity. I am a Kenyan lady, a holder of PhD degree in Library and Information science from Moi University. I also hold masters and bachelor's degrees in Education (Library and studies) from Kenyatta University. I have a postgraduate diploma in Human Resources Management from Kenya Institute of Management and a certificate in Digital Library Practices and Information Technology Application for Knowledge Management from Fluid Control Research Institute (India). I also hold certificates in strategic leadership development Programme (SLDP) and Senior Management Course (SMC) from Kenya School of Government among others. I am well versed with information and knowledge management technologies notably Koha, NVDA, JAWS, plagiarism checkers, institutional repositories, social media tools for information sharing, and various library security systems among others.

I have over twenty years of work experience in universities, international organizations and government libraries fifteen of which were in senior management. As an officer in charge of KSG libraries, I am charged with the responsibility of providing leadership in development and strengthening of library network systems to provide information services for efficient information services. I have established and maintained collaboration with key local and international partners in the provision of information services notably Kenya Libraries and Information Services Consortium and INASP-International Network for the Availability of Scientific Publications. I have provided leadership in development of key library policies and guidelines that have promoted learning and development in KSG. I have participated in the establishment of effective administrative structures, library processes and systems that have enhanced information service delivery in the school. I develop budgets and procurement plans to ensure all the required equipment, software and information resources are available to support the school's mandate. I have also ensured maintenance of the existing library collection to ensure its availability to the library clientele.

With the vast experience and professional skills, I have acquired over the years in library management, I feel most competent to perform all the duties that pertain to this position. I would highly appreciate if you gave me a chance to discuss more about this position over an interview.

Thanking you in advance, I remain.

Yours faithfully,

Julia Ncororo Ameru
