

Elizabeth A. Owino
Kenya School of Government
P.O. Box 23030-00600
Nairobi

03/04/2025

The Director General
Kenya School of Government
P. Box 23030-00600
Nairobi

Dear Director General,

RE: APPLICATION FOR THE PRINCIPAL LECTURER POSITION-PL/04/22024-2025

I am writing to express my interest in the Position of Principal Lecturer PL/04/22024-2025. Having meticulously reviewed the qualifications and responsibilities associated with this esteemed role, I am confident that my extensive experience, scholarly contributions, and professional expertise align seamlessly with the high standards expected by your institution. Over the years, I have dedicated myself to a comprehensive blend of academic excellence, innovative curriculum development, and transformative engagement with learners. My outline of qualifications and achievements in key areas as stipulated for this role include:

Publications: I have published scholarly works that have contributed significantly to the advancement of my field. These include peer-reviewed articles in reputable journals, conference paper presentations, all of which reflect my commitment to academic rigor and scholarly excellence. In addition to these publications, I have delivered several lectures, participated in scholarly presentations at academic conferences.

Training: My teaching philosophy revolves around fostering a dynamic learning environment. I have consistently received positive evaluations from students for the effectiveness of my instruction, which includes the preparation of comprehensive lecture notes and the active mentorship and advising of the learners. Furthermore, I have overseen and supervised a diverse range of research projects and academic papers, contributing to the learners' academic growth. My commitment to quality teaching is complemented by my involvement in the coordination of various academic programs, as well as the careful supervision, marking and moderation of examination results. I have also served on several examination committees.

Consultancy in the Public Service: My career has been enriched by substantial experience in expert consultancy services within the public service sector. This includes developing and executing successful consultancy proposals. My work in this field underscores my ability to bridge the gap between academia and practical public service applications.

Public Outreach Programs: I have been actively involved in promoting public understanding of government policies and programs, particularly in enhancing the uptake of these initiatives in and out of class. My participation in impact assessments has been instrumental in evaluating the effectiveness of government legislation and programs, contributing meaningfully to policy development and implementation.

Public Sector Administration and Responsibility: Throughout my career, I have held recognized administrative roles within the private and public sectors. These roles have equipped me with a deep understanding of institutional governance and leadership, further enhancing my ability to contribute to the school's strategic objectives and administrative responsibilities. I am currently the head of Training and Business Development, where I coordinate admissions, training, timetabling, reporting and overall department performance. I am also the PC champion for the department, where I am in charge of the generation of quarterly and other performance reports in line with the productivity and performance requirements of the School

Given the scope of my experience, I am confident that my academic qualifications, combined with my practical expertise in consultancy, public outreach, and administrative leadership, position me as a strong candidate for the Principal Lecturer Position. I am eager to contribute to KSG's mission of inculcating public service values, and I would be honored to bring my skills and expertise to your distinguished institution.

I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my qualifications align with the objectives of the School. Please find my detailed curriculum vitae attached for your consideration.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Yours Sincerely

Elizabeth A. Owino

Senior Lecturer, Kenya School of Government-Nairobi