Bible Translation and Literacy (East Africa)	Project Leader and a Senior Bible Translator	Kenya	01 Oct 2005	31 Mar 2014	Marigat Sub-County (main station). The work covered some parts of Laikipia, and Nakuru Counties, regions Ilchamus people lived in. .	1. I developed partnerships which helped the project raise funds which sustained its translation, literacy and scripture engagement activities in community. 2. The New Testament in Ilchamus was drafted up to the book of Revelation chapter one. Over ten books went through linguistic consultant check and were ready for publication. 4. I led the project effectively on all aspects . For example, I accounted for all the funds we raised from partners. There were no audit queries. 5. Two books were published during my tenure (literacy books) about HIV AIDS in the Ilchamus language, the first of its kind. 6. I raised funds to buy 100 uniforms for needy pupils. 7. I raised funds from Australia development partners which sponsored three students in the community, one orphan girl in secondary, one student who did Bachelor of Science in Nursing and another one who did B.SC. in Public Health. 8. The work which I did in partnership with many partners was a complete success because the community accepted and owned it (public participation). 9. We recruited and trained staff for the various tasks in the project. 10 Under my leadership, we secured the land from the community where the project office will be built at. It has been done as envisaged. 11. The Ilchamus New Testament was published about two years ago, the culmination of many years of hard work, resilience and partnerships. Nb. These are only some examples.	1. Mobilization & vision sharing in the community. 2. Supervision and evaluation of staff members. 3. Bible translation. 4. Coordination of the Project Advisory Committee activities. 5. Planning and goal setting for the project. 6. Report Writing and budgeting and accounting for the funding allocated to the project.
