RE: APPLICATION FOR CHIEF PRINCIPAL LECTURER

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the position of chief principal lecturer II at the Kenya School of Government. Having honed over two decades of expertise in the public sector training, departmental leadership, and curriculum development, I am confident in my abilities to contribute to your mission.

I am currently serving as the head of department, training and business development at Kenya School of Government mombasa branch. In my abilities I have been able to lead, design, and execute strategic training programs for government and non-governmental officers. In addition, I also supervise staff, manage department, and coordinate training initiatives. I have been able to foster strong intergovernmental partnerships and enhance the vision of the campus through business development and customized trainings.

I hold a Master of Business Administration from Kenyatta university. I have completed key professional development programs including strategic leadership development program and senior management course which have equipped me with a strategic lens in public sector leadership. I have honed practical experience to lead academic teams, drive innovation, and contribute to national policy development through capacity building.

Thank you for considering my application looking forward to further discuss how my skills and experience align with your needs.

Yours Sincerely,

Rebecca Mugo
