Re: Chief Principal Lecturer II

Dear Sir,

I wish to apply for the above position as internally advertised at the Kenya School of Government. I joined the Kenya Institute of Administration as the Coordinator of training and then headed Business Development and also Head of Centre for Leadership and Public Policy. Currently, I am a Senior Principal Lecturer in the training department at Lower Kabete Campus.

I hold a Master of Arts Degree in Economics from the University of Nairobi, a Bachelor of Commerce Degree also from the University of Nairobi. I also hold a Post Graduate Diploma in Education from Kenyatta University. Currently I am pursuing a PhD. in Development Studies. I have also undertaken short courses in several key areas, among them: Productivity Management (Federation of Kenya Employers), Leadership in the Public Service (Singapore College of Public Service), Coaching, Mentoring and Counselling (ESAMI), Senior Management Course and Strategic Leadership Development Programme (Kenya School of Government), to name just a few.

I would be pleased to be considered for an interview at your convenience.

Regards

Patrick M. Gachagua
