APPLICATION FOR THE POSITION OF PRINCIPAL LECTURER- PL/04/2024-25

Following the recent internal advert referenced KSG/KQS/ADM/3 (34) I am writing to formally apply for the position of Principal Lecturer. I am thrilled to have the opportunity to contribute to the School's continued success and growth. With over eleven years (12) years of experience working at the Kenya School of Government, I possess a deep understanding of our systems and processes, making me a strong fit for this role.

In addition to my communication, negotiation, planning and leadership skills, I am confident that my vast expertise in research, consultancy and capacity building of public servants and youth which I have gained over the years while working in various training institutions, would continue to make me a great asset to the School.

In my current position as a Senior Lecturer, my responsibilities include, conducting training needs assessment, development, review and validation of training programs, development of training materials, delivery and evaluation of training programs, preparation of reports and publications, conducting research and consultancy, championing performance management in the School, participating in negotiations for collaborations in various School programs and supporting the Directorate of Academic Affairs in ensuring standards and quality assurance in academic processes among other responsibilities.

My achievements while in my current position include:

1. I successfully directed the team that developed the Guidelines on Management of Examinations.
2. Leading the centralization of examinations within the School, streamlining processes and enhancing operational efficiency in management of examinations.

I know the School's current plans include leveraging on research in its endeavor to play an active role in government advisory and develop more collaborations in public administration at national, regional and international levels. It would be an exciting opportunity for me to use my skills, knowledge and experience in realizing these plans.

I have attached my resume, which further details my skills and educational background. Thank you for prior opportunities, your consideration will be appreciated.

Yours Sincerely,

H. Kinyanjui
