Dear Sir,

Ref: Application for a Principal Lecturer (PL/04/2024-25)

I am writing to apply for the position of principal lecturer Ref: PL/04/2024-25 as advertised on the Kenya School of Government website. I am currently a Doctoral candidate at the University of Science and Technology Beijing (USTB), and I fully expect to complete my Ph.D. degree requirements where I can contribute to its focus on human resources and leadership, continue my research on cognitive diversity and team creativity, and lead campus and professional service activities.

I am confident that my vast experience in research, consultancy and capacity building of public servants and the youth which I have gained after years of working at the school and other institutions would continue to make me an asset to the team at the School in addition to my communication, negotiation, planning and leadership skills.

In my current position as a senior lecturer, I am a vital member of the team and an essential pillar of the School support where I have been the deputy Head of Department in the Training and Business Development at the Mombasa Campus. I have also been a chairperson in various committees of the Campus including the OSH committee, both curriculum development and review committees and examination committee where I was appointed to be a member of the school examination committee. My responsibilities include, conducting training needs assessment, development, review and validation of training programs, development of training materials, delivery and evaluation of training programs, preparation of reports and publications, conducting research and consultancy, championing performance management in the School, participate in negotiations for collaborations in various School programs.

My achievements while in my current position include:

1. Participated in the development of the 'Guidelines on Management of Examinations'.
2. Participated in the development of the Employee wellness policy for the school
3. Organizer and presenter in the coastal region youth debate.
4. The Chair of an RRI team mandated to Setting up of faculty lounge.

I have attached my resume, which further details my skills and educational background. Thank you for prior opportunities to serve the school and the public service. Your consideration will be appreciated.

Yours Sincerely
