Kenya School of Government	Director Academic Affairs/Senior Director Academic Affairs	Kenya	16 Oct 2018	16 Apr 2025	Headquarters	6. As Director Academic Affairs at KSG, I have stewarded and coordinated preparation, review and implementation of learning and development policies and guidelines; research projects; and quality assurance in implementation through audits, monitoring, evaluation and reporting mechanisms. 7. Developed a strategy that revitalized research in the School leading to: (a) increased outputs by faculty, (b) re-engineering KSG Research Forums, (c) preparation for publishing the first issue of the KSG owned Eastern Africa Journal of Public Affairs, and (d) prioritization of KSG commissioned research in line with the think tanks policy, with increased engagement of industry and practice experts making research quite responsive to the public sector needs. 8. Development and implementation of Publishing Guidelines that will revitalize production and dissemination of research outputs and provide additional revenue through publications made under the KSG Press that is currently under operationalization. 12. Coordination of development, review and validation of 156 training curricula out of which 92 add to the KSG portfolio while 64 contribute to the Capacity Injection Project for technical assistance to Federal Republic of Somalia (24) and Puntland State of Somalia (40). 13. Development and implementation of Examinations Management Guidelines that provide the principles and quality standards applied in examinations conducted by the School as part of training and building capacity of faculty. 14. I have remained actively involved in leading in the provision of consultancy service first through development and implementation of Consultancy Services Guidelines to streamline the processes, enhance quality of the outputs and increase revenue for the School. Secondly, I have successfully led and completed consultancy assignments in projects such as strategic planning, organizational development and curriculum development and review among others. 15. Reviewed the Library Services Guidelines in accordance with Commission for University standards and other accredited library norms. 16. Developed policy framework to guide implementation of Outreach Programs that have enriched faculty competencies for action-oriented research and policy advisory. 17. Prepared and secured accreditation of KSG training programs in accordance with Kenya National Quality Authority (KNQA) framework and the subsequent award of the following certificates to the School: a. Accreditation of KSG as a Qualification Awarding Institution and b. Registration of Qualifications wherein thirteen (13) KSG training programs have been accredited. c. Preparation of documents and acquisition of copyrights for the thirteen (13) KSG training programs accredited by the KNQA. 18. Registration of 27 curricula with Kenya National Copyright Board to protect KSG's intellectual property. Additional achievement are detailed in my application and resume which I am attaching for your kind reference.	• Participation in the development and implementation of the KSG strategic plan • Development of agenda for tabling in KSG Council for approval in consultation with the Secretary • Secretary to the Academic Board - Advising management on matters of academic affairs (training, research, consultancy, advisory and outreach services). • Management of transformation and change programmes for continual performance and productivity improvement • Developing training, research, consultancy and advisory services policy guidelines • Establishment of partnerships, linkages and collaborations across value chains of learning and development. • Establishing quality standards in training, research, consultancy and advisory services • Coordination and supervision of development and delivery of learning and development programs (including training needs assessment, curriculum development, training delivery, assessment and evaluation of learning and certification processes) • Coordinating teams to undertake research and consultancy assignments • Ensuring quality in development and implementation of internal and external examinations. • Establishment of criteria for certification in training programs upon approval by Academic Board • Ensuring review of corporate strategy, implementation, monitoring, evaluation and reporting • Ensuring that policies, systems and procedures are developed, reviewed and implemented • Managing specialised centres of excellence within the School • Coordinating implementation, monitoring, evaluating and reporting of the Performance Contract and the quality assurance framework.
Kenya School of Government	Director, Embu Campus	Kenya	01 Jun 2015	15 Oct 2018	Embu	While working as Director for Embu Campus during the transition from GTI to KSG: 1. I re-engineered the institution and the business processes by ensuring that the systems were tamper proof and that the organizational work culture was well aligned. As a result, the performance of the Campus improved in terms of uptake of training programs and revenue flows. 2. Indeed, the number of participants in the Campus on average grew from below 100 to 1500 participants per quarter and over 3,000 per year. 3. Revenue improved from minus 5.2million to at least a surplus of 55 million per year. 4. Prudent financial stewardships reduced debt progressively, making the campus a benchmark to the other campuses. 5. Infrastructure development improved the physical learning environment making the Campus a preferred centre for public servants 6. I developed a strategic plan and a business development strategy for the Campus that incrementally support institutional growth	• Providing strategic leadership and direction in the Campus • Ensuring effective interpretation and implementation of policies, rules and procedures • Developing and implementing human resource development plans for Campus staff • Managing staff performance by cascading the Director's Performance Contract to all levels and supervising staff performance through implementation of Performance Appraisal system • Monitoring, Evaluating and Reporting Campus performance • Development and implementation of approved training programs • Fostering networks and linkages between the Campus and stakeholders • Maintaining the good image and fostering visibility of the School brand • Ensuring prudent utilisation of public resources, including finances and fixed assets • Coordinating research teams and ensuring dissemination of research outputs • Implementing and consultancy guidelines and coordinating consultancy teams for quality services • Maintaining staff discipline by enforcing the Code of Conduct and other codes in public service.
