SUMMARY PROFILE

I am currently a Senior Administrative Officer at the Kenya School of Government, with 14 years of work experience in which 13 of those years have been in the Public Service. My career has also seen me practice in the private sector, particularly in the banking industry.

Additionally, I am seconded as the Program officer for a Public Administrators Professional association known as ‘The Kenya Association for Public Administration and Management’.

(KAPAM). I was also the pioneer member and the former East Africa representative in the AAPAM young professional’s network which incorporated all young public servants from Africa as part of the professional association and has been instrumental in developing young leaders conducting sensitization forums and capacity building initiatives all over Africa.

In regards to my educational background, I have been able to pursue my Masters in Diplomacy at the University of Nairobi in the past two years and I have completed my coursework and is in the process of doing my thesis project. I also hold a Bachelor of Business Degree, with a double Major in International Business and International Marketing from the Edith Cowan University (ECU) in Perth Western Australia. Moreover I have done 8 professional courses at while serving in the Public Service.

Previously, I was a Customer Service Officer at the First Community bank in Kenya where I was recommended for being an honest, efficient and competent employee with excellent team work and people skills. I am also a creative and innovative thinker and I am able to generate unique but workable and useful solutions to difficult problems.

I am fluent in English, Somali and Swahili languages and also have a passion for travelling, managing events, coordination of meetings, conferences and government forums.

My resume demonstrates a person of high dedication, efficiency and drive. I have good communication skills and I am an active team player who is ignited by a challenge.

Following my extensive study and work experience I do believe that under good leadership of my supervisors and other protocols observed I will be able to perform as expected. I look forward to examining any of the ways you feel my background and skills would benefit the position I am applying for.
