Nairobi.

Dear Sir,

RE: APPLICATION FOR THE POSITION OF PRINCIPAL LECTURER

I am writing to express my interest in the position of Principal Lecturer, as recently advertised through the internal call for applications. I am currently serving as a Senior Lecturer at the Kenya School of Government, a role I have held for the past six years with dedication, integrity, and a strong commitment to the School's mandate of enhancing public service capacity.

Over the years, I have contributed to curriculum development, delivery of executive training programs, and the mentoring of both junior faculty and public service officers. My experience has also included leading research initiatives, coordinating workshops, and supporting institutional collaborations aimed at driving public sector reform and innovation. In line with the School's strategic objectives, I have continuously demonstrated leadership in program planning, policy analysis, and academic excellence. I believe that my knowledge, experience, and deep understanding of the School's vision position me well to effectively take up the responsibilities of a Principal Lecturer and continue to contribute meaningfully to its development.

I am enthusiastic about the opportunity to serve in a higher capacity, and I am confident that my professional experience, academic background, and commitment to continuous learning make me a suitable candidate for this role.

Please find attached my detailed curriculum vitae and copies of relevant documents for your consideration. I would be honored to further discuss how I can support the School's mission in this new role.

Thank you for your consideration.

Yours sincerely,

GODFREY ONGERI MANYIBE
Senior Lecturer, Kenya School of Government
