

KENYA SCHOOL OF GOVERNMENT

CALL FOR EXPERTS (CONSULTANTS AND TRAINERS)

The Kenya School of Government (KSG) was established under the Kenya School of Government Act (2012) and has Campuses at Lower Kabete, Baringo, Embu, Matuga and Mombasa. The mandate of the School is to provide learning and development programs that enhance skills and competencies in public service; conduct research that informs public policy; and offer expert consultancy services to improve standards of performance in public institutions. The School offers exciting programs for all levels in public service and has initiated relevant research projects. Further, the School maintains an environment that is conducive to learning and research and has some of the most modern facilities required by both learners and facilitators.

The School now invites expressions of interest from qualified candidates seeking a challenging and dynamic learning environment for prequalification to join the adjunct faculty and consultants in areas of specialization in training, research, and consultancy services that are shown below. These fields of specialization indicated here are not exhaustive and applicants are welcome to propose other courses and programs for consideration.
